REGINA'S NATAL DAY

How It was Observed Abroad by the Members of "Our Band."

The National Hawaiian Band is very popular in the United States and the boys are highly gratified by their success. They do not forget Hawaii and home though. On September the 2nd, says the Makasinana the band made a special celebration in honor of the birthday of the ex-Queen.

A free concert was given by the band at the Sunny Side Park, Chicago, where the boys were engaged, and appropriate tunes, mostly compositions of Liliuokalani, were played. The hotel, in which the boys resided, were gaily decorated with Hawaiian flags, and after the concert a luau was enjoyed.

Poi from taro flour, fish, salmon, onions and other available eatables dear to the Hawaiian palate, were profuse. Sam Kamakais said grace, the proprietor of the Sunny Side Park sent twenty gallons of beer; toasts in Hawaiian for the ex Queen, President Cleveland and Hawaii Nei completed the feast at which several native Chicagoans were present.

The band has left Chicago under an engagement to be at Kansas City, where they marched in a grand procession at a meeting of a masonic or some other organization. The Hawaiian Band, out of twenty bands, was given the place of honor in heading the procession.

The appreciation of our National Band* has not turned the heads of the boys though and they are continuing to behave themselves modestly and gentlemanlike and are a credit to their country and nation.

A Family Hotel.

The Dickson premises on Beretania street, formerly occupied by Dr. Brodie, have been leased to Mrs. B. Freimann, who will shortly open a select family hotel. The new place will be known as The Richelieu, and will be conducted as a first-class hotel. W. S. Bartlett, who is the rince of caterers, will have charge of the culinary department, and will attend to it that the table will be of a superior quality and give satisfaction to the patrons of the house. Meals will be served a la carte and table d'hote, and orders for special dinners will be promptly attended to. The rooms of the hotel are furnished with all modern appliances, lighted by electricity, and in every way comfortable and homelike.

At the Pacific is now to be found Geo. Cavanaugh. All who desire to find the finest, and the best treatment, may wend their way there and see George. "He will fix you."
